9. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

9.1 The Company and the Selling Shareholders, severally and not jointly, acknowledge and agree that each Member of the Syndicate and their respective Affiliates (each, a "Group") are engaged in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, asset management, financing, securities or derivatives trading and brokerage, insurance, corporate and investment banking and research).

9.2 In the ordinary course of their activities undertaken in compliance with Applicable Law, each Group may at any time hold long or short positions and may trade or otherwise effect transactions for their own account or accounts of customers in debt or equity securities of any company that may be involved in the Offer. The members of each such Group and businesses within each such Group generally act independently of each other members of their Group, both for their own account and for the account of clients. Accordingly, there may be situations where certain members of each such Group and/or their clients either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the Company's or the Selling Shareholders' interests. For example, each member of each Group may, in the ordinary course of business, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for their own account or on behalf of other clients, including but not limited to, trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, swaps, loans or other financial products of the Company, the Selling Shareholders, their respective Affiliates or other entities connected with the Offer. For sake of abundant caution, it is clarified that the Member of the Syndicate's research analysts and research departments are required to be independent from their respective investment banking divisions and are subject to certain regulations and internal policies, and that the Member of the Syndicate's research analysts may hold views and make statements or investment recommendations and/or publish research reports with respect to the Company and/or the offering that differ from the views of their respective investment banking divisions. The Company and the Selling Shareholders each waive and release, to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law any claims they may have against any of the Members of the Syndicate or any members of the Groups arising from a breach of fiduciary duties in connection with the Offer;

9.3 The Members of the Syndicate and/or their respective Affiliates may have provided financial advisory and financing services for and received compensation from any one or more of the parties which are or may hereafter become involved in this transaction. The Members of the Syndicate and/or their respective Affiliates may, in the future, seek to provide financial services to and receive compensation from such parties. None of the relationships described in this Agreement or the services provided by the Members of the Syndicate to the Company or the Selling Shareholders or any other matter shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including any duty of confidence) which would preclude or limit in any way the ability of the Members of the Syndicate and/or their respective Affiliates from providing similar services to other customers, or otherwise acting on behalf of other customers or for their own respective accounts. By reason of law or duties of confidentiality owed to other persons, or the rules of any regulatory authority, the Members of Syndicate or their respective Affiliates may be prohibited from disclosing information to the Company or the Selling Shareholders (or such disclosure may be inappropriate), including information as to the Members of Syndicate or their respective Affiliates' possible interests as described in the Offer Agreement and certain acknowledgements) and information received pursuant to such client relationships.

10. INDEMNITY

Members appointed by such member of the Syndicate (and not any Sub-Syndicate Members appointed by any other Member of the Syndicate).

10.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, the maximum aggregate liability of each Member of the Syndicate pursuant to this Agreement (whether under contract, tort, law or otherwise) shall not exceed the fees (excluding expenses and taxes) actually received (excluding any pass through) by such member of the Syndicate for the portion of services rendered by it under this Agreement, the Engagement Letter and the Offer Agreement, each as amended. The Members of the Syndicate, their respective Affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, partners, successors, permitted assigns, shall in no event be liable towards the other Members of the Syndicate, their respective Affiliates, and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents, representatives, partners, successors, permitted assigns for any special, incidental or consequential damages, including lost profits or lost goodwill.
